ROGER FEDERER'S FIRST MATCH IN AFRICA IN CAPE TOWN

Roger Federer will play in Cape Town for the benefit of children in the region. The much-anticipated match between the two tennis icons Roger Federer and Rafael Nadal is set to take place at the Cape Town Stadium in Cape Town on 7 February 2020.

Tickets start at ZAR 150 or 11 USD, making the event accessible to as many tennis fans in South Africa as possible, with various hospitality packages also available. Official tickets sales opened via Computicket on 4 September. In addition to offering South African fans a once in a lifetime experience in their home country, the event has a deeper purpose - to channel all profits to the Roger Federer Foundation's educational efforts in rural areas in Southern Africa.

The Foundation focuses on education, as this is one of the most powerful means of change in a person's life. With a focus on the improvement of the quality of early learning, the Foundation works with local communities and leaders to affect change at grassroots level.

First match on African soil

The Match in Africa is the 6th edition of this event, but the first to be played in Africa. As an entertainment extravaganza, the event will feature a celebrity curtain-raiser match, local entertainers, interactive fun with the crowd, a world record attempt to set the world record for most attendees at a tennis match - and the highlight - the match between 20-time Grand Slam Champion Roger Federer and 18-time Grand Slam Champion and rival Rafael Nadal.

The Match in Africa is presented by ROLEX, and Credit Suisse is one of the official sponsors. The net Federer and Nadal to attempt world attendance record in Cape Town.

All the proceeds of the Match in Africa go to the Roger Federer Foundation.

proceeds of the Exhibition Night will go to the Roger Federer Foundation.

It is not confirmed yet if the South African comedian Trevor Noah and Microsoft Founder Bill Gates will be attending the event, playing a doubles tennis match with the two champions.

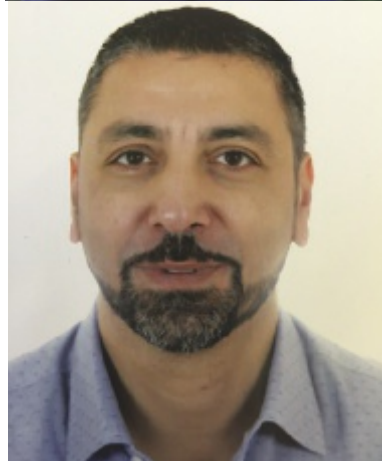

NEW SWISS AMBASSADOR

From Berne to Pretoria: In July Dr. Nicolas Brühl started his new position as Ambassador of Switzerland to South Africa.

We warmly welcome Dr. Nicolas Brühl, the new Ambassador of Switzerland to South Africa, Botswana, Eswatini, Lesotho, Mauritius and Namibia. He arrived in South Africa on 30 July. Ambassador Brühl succeeds Ambassador Helene Budliger Artieda. Ambassador Brühl was previously posted in Berne as Head of the Europe, Central Asia, Council of Europe, OSCE Division at the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs. Before that he served as the Ambassador of Switzerland in Uzbekistan. We wish him and his family a great start and a wonderful time in South Africa.

Dario Lanzillo, Head of the Regional Consular Center, born and raised in the canton of Aargau. His career started at the Federal Department of Foreign Affairs in 1997, and since, he has had the honour to work for Swiss Representations in 9 different counties worldwide.

Mr. Lanzillo moved to Pretoria from Amman, Jordan, after 4 years as the Head of Chancery covering Jordan and Iraq. He arrived in Pretoria on 25 July, accompanied by his wife and their two boys. He is looking forward to the new challenging position at the Embassy of Switzerland in Pretoria with its diversities which not only covers South Africa, but also 10 countries in the region. He is looking forward to getting the opportunity to meet with the Swiss community and interlocutors in the region.

ASO

On 16th August, your ASO delegate Hans-Georg Bosch attended the ASO session in Montreux. The main topics during the council meeting were the E-Voting saga and the still unresolved banking account issues for Swiss Expats. The forthcoming elections of the National Council parliamentarians in September were another topic discussed. The full report of the council session will be forwarded to all club presidents as soon as it has been received.

Once again, the Swiss Club Port Elizabeth has celebrated the Swiss National Day. Around 80 people - adults, children and friends - got together and enjoyed this extraordinary day with excellent food and drinks. The attendance of Mrs Verena Mathis, envoy of the Consulate General in Cape Town, was a special honor. She conveyed greetings from Switzerland and presented us with original Swiss chocolate. The large number of participants shows us once more the importance and significance of these events for us Swiss far away from our original homeland and which we would certainly not want to miss. Special thanks go to all the helpers who made this event possible.

50 Jahre Jubiläum! Die Schweizer Fahne sieht man nicht häufig in Namibia. Trotzdem gibt es eine langbestehende Schweizer-gemeinschaft und seit 50 Jahren den Schweizer Club Namibia.

Dieses runde Jubiläum wurde am 25. Mai auf der River Crossing Lodge Nähe Windhoek gebührend gefeiert. Die Schweizer Botschaft in Pretoria lud die Landsleute zu einem Empfang ein. Nach einer netten Begrüssung von Konsul François Duvanel gab es „s Chübli, Wii“ und andere Getränke. Nach dem gelungenen Aperoging es auf Einladung des Clubs zu einem Mittagessen. Die Tische waren in den Nationalfarben Rot und Weiss geschmückt; bei jedem Platz lag eine Jubiläumsschrift, die zu diesem 50. Geburtstag zusammengestellt wurde. Ein Büffet mit Schweizer Spezialitäten fand grossen Anklang. Während des Essens hat Ruedi Imhof, Verwalter des Clubs, dem ehemaligen Präsidenten, Peter Hess, und einem Gründungsmitglied des Clubs, Victor Grimm, und ihren Frauen Christa und Hilary, als Dank für ihren langjährigen Einsatz einen Geschenkkorb überreicht. Auch Tilly Neuenschwander bekam, leider in Abwesenheit, unter grossem Applaus ein Geschenk. Sie war 31 Jahre Kassierer des Clubs.
